

Name:

Date

Teaching Book Prewriting

Directions:

- Look back at the list of topics you wrote yesterday.
- Choose a topic you want to try writing about today.
- Sketch and write about the parts of that topic that are important, using the table below.

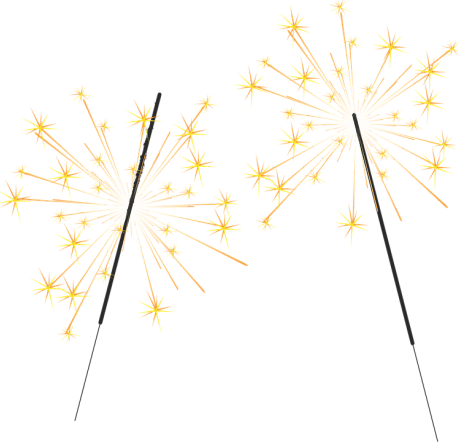

EXAMPLE:

TOPIC: Fireworks

Part of topic	Sketch	Sentence(s)
Different types		They have many different shapes and colors when they go off. They also go to different heights.
Why I like them		They're beautiful and special. They feel like a tradition in my family.
Where to see them		You can see them in lots of places. Usually somewhere with big open space. You can also see them on TV on July 4th.

Name:

Date

When to see them		You can see them on July 4th (or around that time), and sometimes on New Year's Eve too. Or for surprise special occasions.
Safety issues		They can be very dangerous. Kids shouldn't use them. Neither should adults unless they have training.

Name:

Date

TOPIC:

Part of topic	Sketch	Sentence(s)